While we are featuring these indexes and crediting methods, there are other indexes and crediting methods beside the presented ones and this should not be viewed as allocation advice.

These hypothetical examples assumes the indexes will repeat historical performance and that the annuity's current non-guaranteed elements, such as index caps, index margins, participation rates or other interest crediting adjustments, will not change. It is likely that the indexes will not repeat historical performance, the non-guaranteed elements will change, and actual values will be higher or lower than those in these examples but will not be less than the minimum guarantees. The values in these examples are not guarantees or even estimates of the amounts a client can expect from their annuity. Interest crediting strategies availability varies by state and product.

1. Known as a strategy fee annual percentage in the contract. In exchange for the charge, an enhanced participation rate is received. The charge is multiplied by the number of years in the crediting term and is deducted once each term from the accumulated value allocated to the enhanced participation rate method. The charge will be deducted once each term at the earliest of any partial withdrawal that exceeds the penalty-free amount, a full surrender or the end of the term. The strategy charge will be deducted regardless of the interest credited to the contract and can lead to loss of premium in certain scenarios. Strategy charges are considered a partial surrender outside of the available penalty-free amount and for purposes of the return of premium feature will reduce the net premium accordingly.

2. Based on hypothetical projected illustrated rates, last 10 years

3. Based on hypothetical projected illustrated rates using historical index performance for the 10 year period out of the last 20 years that resulted in the highest index growth for each index

4. Based on hypothetical projected illustrated rates using historical index performance for the 10 year period out of the last 20 years that resulted in the lowest index growth for each index

The S&P 500® Low Volatility Daily Risk Control 5% Index is managed to a volatility target, and as a result the index performance will not match the performance of any other index or the markets in general since volatility control tends to reduce both the rate of negative performance and positive performance of the underlying index, thereby creating more stabilized performance. The S&P 500® Low Volatility Daily Risk Control 5% Index has been in existence since Aug. 18, 2011. Ending values in years prior to inception are determined by S&P Dow Jones Indices LLC or its affiliates ("SPDJ") using the same methodology as used currently.

The S&P MARC 5% ER Index is managed to a volatility target, and as a result the index performance will not match the performance of any other index or the markets in general since volatility control tends to reduce both the rate of negative performance and positive performance of the underlying index, thereby creating more stabilized performance. Morgan Stanley Dynamic Contribution and Morgan Stanley Dynamic Global Index (the "Index" and applicable for both) are the property of Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC.

Any product that is linked to the performance of the index is not sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC, or any of its affiliates (collectively, "Morgan Stanley"). Neither Morgan Stanley nor any other party (including without limitation any calculation agents or data providers) makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, regarding the advisability of purchasing this product. In no event shall Morgan Stanley have any liability for any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages including lost profits, even if notified of the possibility of such damages. The index is the exclusive property of Morgan Stanley. Morgan Stanley and the index are service marks of Morgan Stanley and have been licensed for use for certain purposes. Neither Morgan Stanley nor any other party has or will have any obligation or liability to owners of this product in connection with the administration or marketing of this product, and neither Morgan Stanley nor any other party guarantees the accuracy and/or the completeness of the index or any data included therein.

No purchaser, seller or holder of this product, or any other person or entity, should use or refer to any Morgan Stanley trade name, trademark or service mark to sponsor, endorse, market or promote this product, without first contacting Morgan Stanley to determine whether Morgan Stanley's permission is required. Under no circumstances may any person or entity claim any affiliation with Morgan Stanley without the prior written permission of Morgan Stanley.

In calculating the performance of the index, Morgan Stanley deducts, on a daily basis, a servicing cost of 0.50% per annum. This reduces the positive change or increase the negative change in the index level and thus decreases the return of any product linked to the index. The volatility control calculation applied by Morgan Stanley as part of the index's methodology may decrease the index's performance and thus the return of any product linked to the index. In addition, because the volatility control calculation is expected to reduce the overall volatility of the index, it will also reduce the cost of hedging certain products linked to the index.

NOTE ON SIMULATED RETURNS: Back-testing and other statistical analyses provided herein use simulated analysis and hypothetical circumstances to estimate how the Index may have performed between April 3, 2007 and March 17, 2022, prior to its actual existence. The results obtained from such "back-testing" should not be considered indicative of the actual results that might be obtained from an investment in the Index. The actual performance of the Index may vary significantly from the results obtained from back-testing. Unlike an actual performance record, simulated results are achieved by means of the retroactive application of a back-tested model itself designed with the benefit of hindsight and knowledge of factors that may have possibly affected its performance. Morgan Stanley provides no assurance or guarantee that any product linked to the Index will operate or would have operated in the past in a manner consistent with these materials. Calculation based on simulated performance is purely hypothetical and may not be an accurate or meaningful comparison. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not necessarily indicative of future results.

Risk Factors:

- The level of the Index can go down. The Index components are exposed to various risks and their market price may be influenced by many unpredictable factors including risks associated with global equities markets, currency exchange rates, interest rates, commodities, and precious metals.
- There are risks relating to the volatility target mechanism. The Index's volatility target mechanism is applied to target an overall level of realized volatility equal to 5% but the realized volatility may be less than or greater than 5% and the volatility target may adversely affect Index performance.
- There are risks associated with leverage. The Index rules contemplate the possibility of leverage within the Index to achieve the 5% volatility target, which is expected to magnify declines.
- The Index has a limited performance history and past performance is no indication of future performance.
- The Index has embedded costs. The components that are used in constructing the Index include adjustments for costs associated with trading within and between various components, as applicable. The return of such components and, as a result, the return of the Index will be lower than if there were no associated costs.
- Purchasers of products linked to the Index will have no access to the assets underlying the Index.
- The Index methodology is fixed subject to certain adjustments and will not change over time even if the Index underperforms a relevant benchmark
- Morgan Stanley and its affiliates may from time to time engage in transactions involving the components of the Index, which may negatively impact the level of the Index
