Riders guide

Unfortunate events can alter your clients' financial future. There is a way, though, to help protect their plans. As you know, life insurance provides a death benefit to help with the financial protection of loved ones upon death. But life insurance offers many other benefits. This guide helps explain the riders and options available on North American products for an additional charge, which your clients may be able to utilize while they are alive.

	Premium Guarantee Rider (PGR)
Product availability	Protection Builder IUL
Rate class availability	All rate classes. Must be selected at time of application.
Description	If on any monthly anniversary after the no lapse guarantee period ends, the premium guarantee account (PGA) is greater than or equal to the policy debt, then this policy will not enter the grace period, even if the net cash surrender value is insufficient to pay the monthly deduction. This rider does not prevent this policy from entering the grace period during the no lapse guarantee period.
Issue ages	Available for all issue ages.
Maturity or expiration	N/A
Minimum amount	Same as the policy face amount.
Maximum amount	Same as the policy face amount, except for ages 0-17, the maximum face amount when this rider is elected is $999,999.
Rider details	This policy may be kept in effect as a result of this rider, even if the policy's account value has a negative balance. We will not credit or charge interest on this negative balance. Monthly deductions will continue to be made and will be deducted from the negative balance. If the conditions in the "Description" section above have not been satisfied and the policy's net cash surrender value is negative, the policy's grace period may begin, as described in the policy. The PGA is used only for the purpose of determining whether the conditions described in the "Description" section above have been satisfied. They do not represent an independent dollar value that can be accessed by the policyowner. Further, they do not affect the calculation of the actual policy's account value, net cash surrender value or any other value of the policy.
